Volunteer Hall of Fame and Excellence in Mentoring Awards

Governor Kim Reynolds and Lt. Governor Adam Gregg will induct the 2024 Iowa Volunteer Hall of Fame members and present the Excellence in Mentoring awards to two individuals in a ceremony at the Iowa State Capitol building tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, April 30 at 3:00pm.

Being selected for the Iowa Volunteer Hall of Fame is the most prestigious state-level honor volunteers can receive as recognition of extraordinary donations of volunteer service to their communities. The Excellence in Mentoring Awards gives Iowa MENTOR certified programs the opportunity to recognize outstanding long-time youth mentors.

Welcome (back) to Deputy Director Patricia Jacobs

Patricia Jacobs rejoined the Volunteer Iowa team on March 1 as Deputy Director of National Service Programs. We welcome Patricia "back" to the team as she previously managed all of Volunteer Iowa's federal grant activity prior to our move to HHS.

Patricia, originally from Schuyler County in northeast Missouri, graduated from Truman State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting and a Master of Accountancy with a concentration in tax. After spending two years with a public accounting firm, Patricia began working for the IRS, auditing individual and small business tax returns. After seven years with the IRS, Patricia took a job with the Iowa Department of Transportation where she began to learn federal grant accounting. She transferred from there to the Iowa Economic Development Authority. After a brief stint with the Department of Public Safety on the Governor's Traffic Safety Bureau's federal grant, she officially joined Volunteer Iowa.

Outside of work time, you can find Patricia supporting her very active kids in soccer, football, basketball, volleyball, track and band. She also enjoys building Lego and playing board games with her family. Patricia is happy to be back working with Volunteer Iowa, and Volunteer Iowa is thrilled to have her (back) on our team!

City Volunteer Engagement Peer Network

Engaging community volunteers to help meet your city's strategic goals and day-to-day operational needs can be both rewarding and challenging. Whether you're a team of one or a large department of volunteer engagement professionals, you're not alone! Local governments across Iowa are also working with volunteers in a variety of ways. Join us as we learn from each other by sharing resources, discussing challenges and possible solutions, and celebrating volunteer engagement successes. This is a new peer learning network. Your input will be invaluable as we develop this network to best meet our needs.

The network will meet quarterly, with the first meeting on Monday, April 1 at 2:00pm. You can join the Zoom meeting or contact Michelle Raymer with questions.

AmeriCorps Week Overview

Service Enterprise Certifications

Volunteer Iowa is pleased to announce that the following organizations have been reaccredited as a Service Enterprise:

- Hawkeye Area Community Action Program, Inc. \(HACAP\)
- RSVP 55+ Volunteer Program Boone, Greene & Guthrie Counties
- Food Bank of Iowa
- Willis Dady Homeless Services

To be designated as a Service Enterprise, organization staff, board members, and volunteers must participate in the research-based assessment, training, and consulting.

The designation, awarded by the Association of Leaders in Volunteer Engagement (ALIVE), strengthens the capacity of nonprofits to leverage the skill sets and talents of volunteers to address community needs.

Service Enterprise is currently delivered through Volunteer Iowa, part of a national network of Service Enterprise Hubs, which has certified more than 400 organizations across the country since 2012. HACAP is one of nearly 60 organizations across Iowa that have received the Service Enterprise certification.
